Q4 What does Alabama Giving uniquely offer to you that is not provided by any other membership association?

Answered: 15 Skipped: 4

#	RESPONSES	DATE
1	Best place to connect with those funding the same projects and organizations and dealing with the same environment and situational issues.	7/6/2018 10:25 AM
2	Very thoughtful agendas and the high quality of the speakers and information presented.	7/2/2018 2:35 PM
3	Foundation specific training and best practices such as David Dodson's Passing Gear Philanthropy.	7/2/2018 11:15 AM
4	Updates on issues we need to be aware of and examples of tools and resources to address them.	7/2/2018 11:15 AM
5	Connection to other Alabama grantmakers. Opportunity to join other grantmakers in solving our state's problems. Access to philanthropic information at a reasonable cost. (I love SECF, but its once a year conference is much more expensive than all the AG meetings combined.)	7/2/2018 10:33 AM
6	The opportunity to network with mainly Alabama-based/Alabama-focused foundations	7/2/2018 10:26 AM
7	Access to grant makers in Alabama and their perspectives and challenges. It is also good to hear from folks in different parts of Alabama and what is going on in those areas.	6/29/2018 9:15 AM
8	Opportunity to learn from others who have developed expertise in certain areas that need attention in our area.	6/25/2018 3:16 PM
9	Connection with other funders	6/23/2018 7:23 AM
10	The groups at the table are vast and wide, with great networks and a wealth of knowledge.	6/22/2018 11:48 PM
11	In-state networking and collaboration Knowledge of state programs, issues, and funding	6/22/2018 5:05 PM
12	An avenue to connect with my peers statewide.	6/22/2018 1:45 PM
13	In-State collaborative planner/funder opportunities	6/22/2018 11:39 AM
14	Provides an opportunity to engage with other foundations doing similar work. Recognizing that Alabama is so heavily dependent on the philanthropic community means that funders have to work harder to ensure that we are duplicating efforts because there is a finite amount of money that can be spent and we need to ensure it goes to programs with the greatest potential for success.	6/22/2018 11:24 AM
15	Personal relationships with peer grantmakers in AL	6/14/2018 12:18 PM

Q12 Is there anything else you would like to share with us?

Answered: 7 Skipped: 12

#	RESPONSES	DATE
1	Alabama Giving birthed one of the most critical and effective policy pushes our state has ever seen -- expansion of high-quality pre-k. What is the next bold, visionary policy opportunity on which we can lead and partner with local and state advocates. How will we inspire change?	7/2/2018 11:15 AM
2	Jera is amazing! Thank you for your service.	7/2/2018 11:15 AM
3	AG has meant a great deal to the capacity and effectiveness of our foundation. I hope that AG can continue to grow and engage grantmakers in helping to solve some of Alabama's problems.	7/2/2018 10:33 AM
4	Thank you for all of the work that goes into convening the meetings and providing interesting and thoughtful topics/discussions.	6/29/2018 9:15 AM
5	My early interaction with this group has been very worthwhile. I look forward to more.	6/25/2018 3:16 PM
6	Jera does a great job!	6/22/2018 5:05 PM
7	I would like to see AG serving as a catalyst for change on a statewide basis - similar to what was done many years ago for the very successful pre-K program. Networking and education is important but i would value more pro-active efforts to organize philanthropy to effect change in Alabama. That would differentiate AG from the other regional/national associations.	6/22/2018 4:30 PM
